I really enjoyed this game. I enjoyed the art style, the soundtrack and the difficult is challenging enough it will keep me engaged till I complete the game. I don't get to play many games, but this was one I could put on for an hour or so while the kids watched. They enjoyed it too. If your in for something fun, interesting and different your will really like this. At one point I even caught myself comparing favourably to the old days of Doom and Duke Nukem. Mostly because the game felt new and interesting, Something that we don't often feel after playing games for 25 years now. Much enjoyable.
